ARTICLE 1. PUBLIC PURPOSE SERVED BY THIS AGREEMENT

The purpose of this Agreement is as stated in 5 USC 7101:

A. Congress finds that-

- (1) experience in both private and public employment indicates that the statutory protection of the right of employees to organize, bargain collectively and participate through labor organizations of their own choosing in decisions which affect them-
 - (a) safeguards the public interest,
 - (b) contributes to the effective conduct of public business, and
 - (c) facilitates and encourages the amicable settlements of disputes between employees and their employers involving conditions of employment; and
- (2) the public interest demands the highest standards of employee performance and the continued development and implementation of modern and progressive work practices to facilitate and improve employee performance and the efficient accomplishment of the operations of the Government.

Therefore labor organizations and collective bargaining in the civil service are in the public interest.

B. It is the purpose of this chapter to prescribe certain rights and obligations of the employees of the Federal Government and to establish procedures which are designed to meet the special requirements and needs of the Government. The provisions of this chapter should be interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirement of an effective and efficient Government.

ARTICLE 2 RECOGNITION AND UNIT DESIGNATION

SECTION 1. Management recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent and representative, under the provisions of the Statute and Department of Commerce Administrative order 202-711, for all employees in the unit identified in Section 2 below. The Union recognizes the responsibilities of representing the interests of all unit employees (without discrimination and without regard to Union membership) with respect to conditions of employment.

It is the intent of Management and the Union that our Partnership as described under our workplace Partnership Agreement will follow the precepts of Executive Order 12871, as stated above, for the lifetime of the Executive Order, or until the Executive Order is changed, amended, or rescinded by legislation, regulations, case law, or other Executive Orders. An employee shall be deemed to have exercised his/her option at such time as the employee timely initiates an action under the applicable statutory procedure or timely files a grievance in writing, in accordance with the provisions of this negotiated procedure whichever event occurs first.

SECTION 3. An employee or groups of employees may present their grievances to Management and have them adjusted with or without the services of the Union. If presented without Union representation, such grievances may be adjusted without Union representation provided the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement and the Union is informed (simultaneously with the employee) of the adjustment or decision.

Grievances which question, directly or indirectly, interpretation of ERL policy, GLERL policy or NOAA or other higher authority policy or regulation, will not proceed to arbitration without determination of interpretation by the responsible agency office. The interpretation will be submitted to the other party.

SECTION 5. The Union, Management, and employees agree to endeavor to settle differences informally at the lowest level of supervision possible. Therefore, all issues will be initially discussed at the lower level before invoking this article and the formal processes described in Section 7. (Also see Article 4, Section 6 for similar principle).

SECTION 6. Time Limits for Presenting a Grievance: (1) An employee may present a grievance concerning a continuing practice or condition at any time; (2) an employee shall present a grievance concerning a particular act or occurrence within 15 calendar days from the date of that act or occurrence, or the date the employee first became aware or should have become aware of that act or occurrence.

SECTION 7. Under this article, employee grievances will be processed in the following manner. The employee must inform the supervisor that he/she is starting Step 1 of the negotiated grievance procedure.

Step 1. Whenever an employee considers him/herself aggrieved, he/she will discuss resolution with the immediate supervisor. If the employee desires Union representation at this stage, he/she shall notify the immediate supervisor and Union representative. Within 15 calendar days after such discussion, the supervisor will notify the employee of his/her determination and of the provisions of Section 3. If the employee desires further review, he/she shall proceed to Step 2 within 15 calendar days.

Information Note: Step 1 is intended to be a rather informal process.

Step 2. The employee shall state clearly and concisely in writing all facts which are the basis for the grievance and specify the relief sought including why the outcome of Step 1 is unsatisfactory. If the employee claims that any articles of this Agreement or other laws, rules or regulations are violated, he/she shall specify them. The grievance shall be dated and signed by the aggrieved employee and given to the immediate supervisor. If the employee desires he/she may be accompanied by a representative. Designation of the representative, if any, must be in writing. Following presentation of the grievance, the Supervisor shall respond in writing within 15 calendar days.

Step 3. If satisfactory settlement is not reached in Step 2, and the employee wishes to pursue the grievance, the matter must be forwarded by the grievant or his/her representative, in writing within fifteen (15) calendar days, to the second level supervisor (or designated representative). The second level supervisor will respond in writing, to the grievant within 15 calendar days after receiving the grievance. No new issues will be raised at this or subsequent steps which were not raised at Steps 1 and 2. Any new issue must be treated as a separate grievance.

Step 4. If the matter is still unresolved and the grievant is represented by the Union, arbitration may be invoked under the provisions of Article 11.

SECTION 8. Grievances may be filed by Management or the Union on any matter that concerns an alleged violation of the provisions of this Agreement, or any supplement thereto.

- A. Management grievances shall be initiated in writing by the Director, GLERL, and presented to the Union President within thirty (30) calendar days of the action or condition giving rise to the grievance. Decisions by the Union President shall be rendered in writing no later than thirty (30) calendar days following the receipt of the grievance. Should the issue remain unresolved arbitration may be invoked by Management under the provision of Article 11.
- B. Union grievances shall be initiated in writing by the Union President and presented to the Director, GLERL, within thirty (30) calendar days of the action or condition giving rise to the grievance. Decisions by the Director, GLERL, shall be rendered in writing no later than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of the grievance. Should the issue remain unresolved, arbitration may be invoked by the Union under the provisions of Article 11.

SECTION 9. After initiation of a grievance an extension of time limits expressed in this Article, not to exceed seven (7) calendar days, shall be granted upon the request of either party provided the request for extension is received before the expiration of the applicable time limits. Other extensions of time may be granted by mutual consent of the parties.

SECTION 10. If any employee resigns, dies, or otherwise leaves the unit by any action before a decision is reached on a grievance which is being processed and no compensation issue is involved, action will be stopped and all interested parties will be notified that the case is being closed without decision. A copy of this notification will be made a part of the case file.

ARTICLE 11. ARBITRATION

SECTION 1. If Management and the Union fail to settle any grievance processed under the negotiated grievance procedure, such grievance, upon written notice by either party within thirty (30) calendar days after issuance of the final decision, may be submitted to arbitration. It is agreed that arbitration may only be invoked by either Management or the Union.

SECTION 2. Within five (5) working days from the date of the written notice of arbitration, either party may request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service provide a list of seven (7) impartial persons qualified to act as arbitrators and the party filing for arbitration will pay any cost incurred by the FMCS for this service. The parties shall meet within three (3) working days after the receipt of such list. If they cannot mutually agree upon one of the listed arbitrators, then Management and the Union will each strike one arbitrator's name from the list of seven and will then repeat this procedure. A toss of the coin will determine the first strike. The remaining person shall be the duly selected arbitrator.

SECTION 3. If for any reason Management or the Union refuses to participate in the selection of an arbitrator, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service shall be empowered to make a direct designation of an arbitrator to hear the case.

SECTION 4. If the parties fail to agree on a joint submission of the issue for arbitration, each shall submit a separate submission and the arbitrator shall determine the issue or issues to be heard.

SECTION 5. The arbitration hearing shall be held during the regular day shift work hours, Monday through Friday. Employees whose participation in the hearing is required by the arbitrator shall be in a duty status if they would otherwise be in a duty status. Witnesses will be present at the hearing only while testifying and should be permitted to testify only if the grievant and/or his/her representative and Management's are present. The hearing will be open for observers with consent of the parties. Under no circumstances will premium pay or compensatory time off be authorized for either participants or witnesses called. Official time to prepare for the arbitration process may be authorized with prior written request and permission from Management.

SECTION 6. The cost of arbitration, if any, will be shared as follows:

- A. Arbitrator's fees and expenses shall be shared equally by the parties.
- B. If a transcript is required by the arbitrator, the cost shall be shared equally by the parties. When a transcript is not required by the arbitrator, but either party desires a transcript, the requesting party shall bear the cost. If both parties desire a transcript, the costs shall be shared equally. The transcripts, where required by the arbitrator or by mutual agreement of the parties, shall be executed by a certified court reporter.
- C. Travel and other costs for Management representatives will be paid by Management.
- D. Travel and other costs for Union representatives will be paid by the Union.
- E. All other costs which the parties mutually agreed to incur shall be shared equally.

SECTION 7.

- A. The arbitrator will render a written decision and this decision shall set forth in detail the arbitrator's reasoning.
- B. Either party may request clarification of the arbitrator's decision or award.

SECTION 8. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, disregard, alter, or notify any of the terms of the Agreement or NOAA policies and regulations.

SECTION 9. The arbitrator's award shall be binding on the parties; however, either party may file exceptions to an arbitration award with the Federal Labor Relations Authority under regulations prescribed by the Authority. The filing of such an exception by either party will act to stay the effect of an award until final adjudication by the Authority.

ARTICLE 12. DISCIPLINE

SECTION 1. The maintenance of good morale and discipline is essential to the satisfactory operation of the Great Lakes Environmental Research Laboratory. Whenever it is necessary to take disciplinary measures against an individual, the overriding consideration shall be that the action taken will promote the efficiency of the service.

SECTION 2. Disciplinary action is defined as corrective measures intended to maintain the efficiency of the service and encourage conduct compatible with NOAA's lawful functions.

SECTION 3. Management will make reasonable efforts to explore with an employee the source of any difficulty and suggest constructive ways to overcome such difficulty. In the initial discussion between an employee and his/her supervisor regarding the employee's conduct (Chapter 14, Employee Handbook, USDOC, Sept. 1995), or his/her behavior, such discussion must be in private unless the employee reasonably believes that disciplinary action may result, in which case the employee may request to be accompanied by his/her Union representative during the meeting. In any subsequent meeting in regard to behavior that indicates possible disciplinary action, a Union representative must be present during the discussion if the employee requests Union representation.

SECTION 4. Disciplinary actions will be processed in accordance with all applicable Office of Personnel Management and Agency regulations. If an employee elects Union representation, the representative shall be the designated Steward unless:

- A. The activities of the representative selected would cause a conflict of interest or position, or
- B. The representative selected is a NOAA employee whose release from official duties would result in unreasonable costs to the Government or whose priority work assignments preclude release from official duty. (If requested, the reasons for the denial would be in writing.)
- C. The Union president may change the designated representative for good cause. In the event the Union Steward or other designated representative enters a proceeding in behalf of an employee, the employee shall file a written statement of authorization with the servicing personnel office.

SECTION 5. In all cases of proposed disciplinary action against a unit employee, the employee will be furnished with a copy of the proposal. Management will make available for review to the employee all material on which the disciplinary action is based. The employee will be told where such material may be reviewed and will be permitted to copy said material.

SECTION 6. Disciplinary action against an employee shall be initiated promptly, normally within thirty (30) calendar days after the offense has come to the supervisor's attention, and all pertinent facts have been made known to Management.

SECTION 7. Letters of reprimand are temporary contents of the official personnel file. An employee may ask the servicing personnel office to remove these papers from his/her file after a one-year retention period, and the servicing personnel office will, upon written request and identification of the documents, consider the request and determine whether the documents should be removed and destroyed. In any event, these documents will be destroyed after a three (3) year retention period unless Management is granted an exception by the Office of Personnel Management. An employee shall have the privilege of inspecting the contents of the personnel file at reasonable intervals.

ARTICLE 13. POSITION CLASSIFICATION

SECTION 1. Employees shall be furnished information on procedures and appeal rights pertaining to position classification, according to the appropriate sections in 5 USC and other applicable regulations. Assistance shall be given to employees by their supervisors, and appropriate representatives of the Human Resources as may be necessary and proper under applicable regulations, including explanation of the use of classification standards for the rating of an employee's job, and procedures in the filing of a classification appeal under Department Administrative Order 202-511 (GS employees) and Department Administrative Order 202-532 (WG employees) and according to the appropriate section in 5 USC.

SECTION 2. Employees have the right to appeal the title, series, grade, or placement of the position in either the General Schedule (GS) or Federal Wage System (FWS).

SECTION 3. After initial discussion with the supervisor, an employee may file an appeal by writing to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM) directly, or by forwarding the appeal through the employing agency. The agency shall forward, within 60 calendar days of its receipt in the agency, an employee's appeal filed through the agency to the Office of Personnel Management when: (a) The employee has directed the appeal to OPM and the agency's decision is not favorable, or (b) the agency is not authorized to act on the employee's appeal; or (c) the agency has not decided the appeal within the established time period. [Added Note: This section applies primarily to General Schedule classification appeals because 5 CFR 532.705 requires an agency appeal decision before an employee files with OPM].

SECTION 4. Filing a classification appeal does not deprive the employee of his/her right to appeal any related adverse action through appropriate appeal or grievance procedures. When an adverse action involving a reduction in grade or level or pay is taken because: (1) a review of the position indicates that there has been a gradual diminishment of responsibilities not directly attributable to the employee or Management or (2) a change in classification standards is applied to an existing position, the classification appeal will be accepted only if there is not a pending classification appeal on the job in question.

SECTION 5. Employees are encouraged to make full use of the communications process outlined in Section 1 prior to filing a formal written classification appeal. If an employee files a formal classification appeal, he/she may elect to have a representative from the bargaining unit; if a representative is desired, the appellant must name the party in his/her written appeal. The employee and the representative shall be granted a reasonable amount of official time to present the appeal and be free from restraint, interference, coercion, or reprisal.

ARTICLE 14. MERIT ASSIGNMENT PLAN - SELECTED POSITIONS

SECTION 1. The Union and Management agree that the merit assignment program in effect as of the effective date of the contract shall remain in force for the period of the contract. The foregoing statement is modified only to the extent indicated by the following sections and/or unless the parties mutually agree otherwise.

SECTION 2. In order to properly rank applicants for promotion, both parties agree that it is the responsibility of the employee to keep Management informed of new or additional information relevant to personal qualifications.

SECTION 3. It shall be the policy of Management to promote employees in career ladder positions, budget permitting, to each succeeding level, when the duties are validated by proper position description(s) and classification decision, as rapidly as the employee demonstrates the ability to perform the duties at that level to Management satisfaction and when he/she has met qualifications. It is agreed that the supervisor is responsible for initiating career ladder promotions and will discuss with the employee reasons for nonpromotion. Career ladder promotions will be handled in an expeditious manner.

SECTION 4. Management agrees that any employee in the unit for whom a detail to a higher graded position within the bargaining unit is planned which will exceed 2 complete pay periods (but not exceed 120 calendar days), who meets the qualification requirements prescribed by OPM for the higher grade position and promotion is otherwise consistent with law and other Government-wide regulations, shall be temporarily promoted in lieu of being detailed.

SECTION 5. Selections for temporary promotion within the bargaining unit not to exceed 120 days will normally be made from among qualified employees in the laboratory. Such selections will be based on Management decision as exceptions to competitive promotion procedures. Separate temporary promotion situations shall be rotated among qualified employees, where possible.

SECTION 6. Management agrees to post the names of promoted employees.

ARTICLE 15. WORK ASSIGNMENTS/DETAILS

SECTION 1. Management agrees that employees will normally be assigned to work which is appropriate to their job classification. Management retains the right to assign duties to employees based on program needs. Employees will be furnished a copy of their position description upon entering on duty and as changes are made. Management and employees have a mutual responsibility to assure that position descriptions are kept current and are based on the principle duties and responsibilities assigned each position.

SECTION 2. Management agrees that it will compensate Wage Grade employees on the basis of the classification of the duties assigned to the employee.

SECTION 3. Should an employee become disabled from illness or an injury to the extent that he/she cannot perform his/her work assignments in his/her present position, but can be reassigned to another line of work (and does not elect disability retirement if applicable), Management will make an effort to insure that the employee may be assigned to a position at comparable level upon successful completion of a fixed period involving retraining and trial placement. It is agreed that the Union will be notified regarding the training proposed.

SECTION 4. Position descriptions which contain the terminology "other duties as assigned" refer to other reasonably related duties of the position.

SECTION 5. A detail is the temporary assignment of an employee to a different position for a specified period, with the employee returning to his/her regular position at the end of the detail.

SECTION 6. Employees detailed to other positions shall be given a statement of duties if such assignments are for 30 calendar days or more. Details in excess of 30 calendar days will be reported on Standard Form 52, and maintained as a permanent record in the employee's Official Personnel Folder.

ARTICLE 16. TRAINING

SECTION 1. Management and the Union agree to the objective of improving and maintaining the effectiveness of GLERL's mission and operations by developing a well-trained work force and assisting employees to achieve this capability through providing training and educational opportunities.

SECTION 2. When in-house training is offered, a notice will be posted and each employee shall have the opportunity to express interest.

SECTION 3. Management may approve work-related training at a non-government facility. Such training may be on official time.

SECTION 4. All required fees and expenses for training authorized by Management (e.g., tuition, books, lab fees, and equipment) will be borne by Management. Nonexpendable property purchased under the provisions of this section remains the property of the U.S. Government.

SECTION 5. If an employee is assigned new duties in which he/she has had no previous experience or training, management will determine whether a need for training exists and the appropriate training to meet that need.

- A. Each excused absence will be limited to 24 hours.
- B. Agenda for the training must be furnished to Management at the time of the request for the excused absence;
- C. Training is deemed to be in the public interest in accordance with 5 USC 7131 D2.
- D. Supervisor has agreed to release the employee requesting training.

ARTICLE 17. HOURS OF DUTY

SECTION 1. The basic 40-hour work week shall be Monday through Friday. The normal hours of work for employees shall be within 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Employees may work outside of these normal hours by participating in an AWS, which includes flexitime. The Management has final authority to determine employee work hours/schedules.

SECTION 2. Alternative Work Schedules.

Definitions

Core Time: Means those designated hours and days during the biweekly pay period when an employee on a flexible schedule must be present for work. The core time under the AWS is 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. with lunch periods between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

Flexible Daily Schedule: Means that part of the schedule of working hours during which employees may choose their time of arrival at and departure from the work site, within limits consistent with the duties and requirements of the position. Under AWS the flexible schedule would allow for arrival between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. with departure between 3:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

5/4/9 AWS: Participating employees work 80 hours in 9 days and have one day off each Pay Period. Employees have a fixed schedule of four 9-hour days and one 8-hour day one week, and four 9-hours days the other week of the pay period. The 8-hour work day must be part of the employees work schedule of record. However, the 8-hour day is not limited to Monday or Friday. Days off would be limited to Mondays or Fridays.

4/10 AWS: Participating employees work 4 ten hour days and have one day off each week. The employee selects a fixed day off, either Monday or Friday of each week, or the first Friday second Monday of each pay period or second Friday first Monday.

Arrival and Departure Time: Under AWS employees would report to work on a flexible daily schedule beginning anytime between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. Core time, during which hours all employees must be at work or on leave, will be from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00.

p.m. Lunch periods are allowed between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Tour of duty, which is the inclusive hours of each day during which employees may work their AWS, will be from 6:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m.

Effect on Benefits

1. Holidays

5/4/9: If a holiday occurs on one of the employee's 9-hour days, it is considered a 9-hour holiday, and the employee works seven 9-hour days and one 8-hour day in that pay period. If the holiday occurs on the one 8-hour day, it is considered an 8-hour holiday and the employee works the regular eight 9-hour days in that pay period.

4/10: The holiday is considered a 10-hour holiday.

Both: If a holiday occurs on the employee's scheduled Friday off, the employee will have Friday off as scheduled and take Thursday of the same week as holiday leave. If the holiday occurs on the employee's scheduled Monday off, the employee will have Monday off as scheduled and take Tuesday of the same week as holiday leave.

2. Leave - 5/4/9 Plan

If leave is approved for a regularly scheduled 9-hour day, the employee is charged 9 hours leave. If it is on the 8-hour day, the employee is charged 8 hours leave.

If two week's leave is taken during which a holiday falls, the employee is charged 71 hours of leave if the holiday falls on a scheduled 9-hour day or; 72 hours if the holiday falls on the scheduled 8-hour day, including the adjustment as previously outlined for holiday falling on a scheduled day off.

2. Leave - 4/10 Plan

If leave is approved for a regularly scheduled 10-hour day, the employee is charged 10 hours leave. If a week's leave is taken during which a holiday falls, the employee is charged with 30 hours of leave.

3. Overtime

If an employee is ordered to work more than the number of hours scheduled under the AWS for a particular day, the employee will be entitled to premium compensation either by being paid at time-and-a-half or accruing compensatory time, just as is the case under current schedules. If the employee is covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act, and works more than 80 hours in a pay period, or more than their daily 9 or 10 hour per day schedule, the employee is compensated according to premium pay regulations. Without the AWS, the rule would be that the entitlement would vest if the employee worked more than 40 hours in a week.

An employee may be ordered to report for duty on his/her scheduled day off, just as under the current schedule an employee may be required to work on a Saturday or Sunday. If an employee must work on his/her AWS day off, and if is early enough in the pay period, the employee may be required to take another day off during that pay period instead of earning Overtime by working more than 80 hours in the pay period.

4. Night Differential

Night Pay (General Schedule) according to the appropriate section in 5 USC.

Night work hours are the hours between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. Daytime hours are the hours between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m.

If the tour of duty includes eight or more hours available for work during daytime hours, the employee is not entitled to night pay even though he/she voluntarily elects to vary his/her arrival time such that departure would be after 6 p.m., for which night pay is normally required.

If the core time is during daytime hours but the tour of duty includes less than eight daytime hours as defined, the employee is entitled to night pay for the difference between 8 hours and the available number of daytime hours in the tour of duty.

5. Travel

Staff on travel to participate in meetings and conferences will be considered on an 8-hour daily schedule for the duration of travel. Persons on the 5/4/9 or 4/10 AWS will have to account for the remaining 1 or 2 hours per day either by taking leave or adjusting their work schedule for the pay period of travel so that all 80-hours in the pay period are accounted for.

Those employees not in work status for the full number of hours required under their present daily work schedule will be assessed leave for those hours not worked.

6. Sign In

All employees will log their daily arrival and departure time on standardized time sheets. Employees are not required to log in and out for lunch breaks.

Additional Provisions

1. Schedules can be changed four times per year with concurrence of supervisor.
2. Secretaries will be excluded from working a 10 hour day, but are eligible to work the 5/4/9 schedule. Preference for day off will be determined by seniority at GLERL

SECTION 3. Management will normally allow two (2) paid 15 minute work breaks during an 8-hour day, one for each 4-hour period worked. The breaks will not augment the lunch hour or be at the beginning or end of the day.

SECTION 4. Management will provide an amount of time, consistent with the nature of the work performed for employees to clean up prior to lunch and at the end of the day. Time will be allowed employees for the storage or clean up and protection of government property and equipment and personal tools prior to the end of the workday.

- D. Sick employees who do not report at work at the regularly scheduled time will notify the supervisor before the beginning of the shift when possible, or within two hours of the beginning of the work day or shift. Whenever possible the supervisor should be given some idea of the approximate length of time the employee expects to be incapacitated so that the work may be planned accordingly.

- E. When absence from duty exceeds three consecutive work days, it must be supported, by either a medical certificate or a statement signed by the employee stating why he/she did not have medical care. (Chapter 14, Handbook on Hours of Duty and Leave Administration, USDOC, September 1995, Section 5 - page 4)
